At Hayabusa Karate, we value discipline, respect, continuous self-improvement and community building through the study of traditional Shotokan karate technique and modern World Karate Federation competitive karate. We are a WKF, Karate Canada, Karate BC and International Shotokan Karate Federation Member Club.

The founder of Hayabusa Karate, Valentyna Zolotarova, is the youngest World Karate Federation Certified Judge in Canada and the world, Secretary of Canadian Officials' Committee, 6 time national champion, international medallist in both kata and kumite and a current member of the national team roster.

Our students range from toddlers to seniors. Some of our younger practitioners participate in local and international competitions.

Her students have an opportunity to excel in tournaments if they desire to pursue competitive karate as well as the freedom to focus on traditional karate and improve concentration, fitness level and self-confidence. Each dojo member is treated on an individual basis to work towards personal goals. Our classes enable children and adults of all ages to train in a challenging, self-paced and community-oriented environment. Many of our members include parents and children who wish train together, teenagers and adults of all ages who have varied but compatible goals in traditional and competitive karate.
